Pisa was one of the first cities I visited in Italy. That is one reason ( 1 ) it is one of my favorite Italian cities. But I was in love with Pisa even before I saw it.

I ( 2 ) dream about it when I was a boy. I read about the famous building ( 3 ) the Leaning Tower of Pisa. But when I read the word Pisa, I was thinking of pizza. I thought this tower was a place ( 4 ) you could buy pizza. It must be the best pizza in the world.

Many years later I finally saw the Leaning Tower. I found ( 5 ) then that it was Pisa and not pizza. The tower got its name because it really does lean to one side. Some people want to try to fix it. They are afraid it may fall over and ( 6 ) [①the way / ②like / ③it looks / ④they don't]. For them the tower should stand up straight. They want things to be perfect.

I do not think it's a good idea to try to fix it. The tower probably will not fall down. I like the way it looks. I like the way it leans over the city.

The reason why the tower is one of the most famous in Italy is that imperfect things may be ( 7 ) interesting. People come from all over the world to see it. I am one of those people. After my first visit, I returned many times. And every time, I liked it just as much. Pisa still makes me think of pizza.

Many Americans tell me that Italy has a lot of problems: the trains are never ( 8 ), the telephones do not always work, the streets are not always clean. Things are not perfect at all. "Why don't the Italians fix all of them?" they ask. But that is ( 9 ) I like about Italy. It is old and imperfect and very human.

(注) the Leaning Tower of Pisa: ピサの斜塔
